

Karen Alcorn

KITCHEN DESIGNER

Karen has a degree in Interior Design, with a focus on kitchen and bath design. Karen enjoys the challenge of making each kitchen unique to the homeowner's taste. She believes that the kitchen is the heart of the home and should be special no matter how big or small. Karen listens well to the customer to help them get what they are looking for. She has a positive attitude and will go the extra mile to serve her customers.

"I like creating new spaces that are more efficient for the customer. And, I especially love seeing what we have created together."
