

Taylor Campbell

KITCHEN DESIGNER

Taylor has been designing kitchens and bathrooms across Maine and New Hampshire since 2018. From ski condo renovations to new home builds, Taylor helps bring a client's vision to life by focusing on the details to create a design that is functional and beautiful.

While Taylor finds working with clients from start to finish on the entire design process exciting, one of her favorite parts is seeing the clients' faces when their kitchen is finished.

"The best part of the job is bringing a client's dream kitchen to life, and creating a space that they love and want to spend time in."
